

Biography

Sergeant First Class Andrew Starr
Competitor, Free Fall Formation Team
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Cleveland, Ohio

School Attended: Cleveland Heights H.S., Cochese Community College

Biographical Sketch

SFC Andrew Starr is a 35F, Intelligence Analyst, serving on the Formation Free Fall Competition Team.

He enlisted into the Army in July 2003 and following his initial entry training he was sent to the 82nd Airborne Division on Fort Bragg. In 2004 he moved to the 407th Brigade Support Battalion.

In October 2006, he attended the rigorous Assessment and Selection Program. Upon completion of the program, he was knighted and assigned to the Black Demonstration Team.

Prior to making the United States Army Parachute Team, SFC Starr has performed as a Battalion Intelligence Officer, a tennis and swim team athlete and completed over 5,000 free fall jumps.

His accomplishments include several National and International Formation Skydiving medals. Most recently he won the Gold medal in Eight way, Sixteen way, and Ten way in 2014 at the U.S. Nationals in Chicago, IL. Shortly after, he and his Team represented the U.S. at the World meet in Prostejov, Czech Republic and brought back the Gold Medal in Eight way. In 2013 Starr served a tour of duty in Afghanistan.

In addition to skydiving, he also enjoys reading, cycling and golf.

