

TRAINING LEADERS FOR LIFE

Scholarship Opportunities

Army ROTC offers generous merit-based scholarships to qualified students. They can defray the full cost of tuition, and provide additional tax-free allowances for books, supplies, equipment, and necessary fees.

- Four-Year Scholarship For eligible high school students or high school graduates with four academic years left to complete their degree.
- Three-Year Scholarship For eligible students with three academic years left to complete their college degree.
- Two-Year Scholarship For eligible students with two years of college remaining or high school students planning to attend a Military Junior College (MJC).
- Guaranteed Reserve Forces Duty Scholarships For eligible students who want to combine a career in the private sector with service as an Officer in the Reserve Component. If selected, the student is guaranteed placement into the Reserve Component upon their commissioning.

LEARN.
LEAD.
SUCCEED.

Army ROTC Facts at a Glance

There are 274 college campuses that host Army ROTC programs and over 700 additional partnership campuses linked to the host colleges.

Army Officers can choose to pursue full-time careers on Active Duty or part-time service in the Army Reserve Component (Army Reserve or National Guard).

Army ROTC commissions more than 70 percent of the Army's lieutenants each year. The majority of Officers in today's Army got their start through Army ROTC.

Students can enroll right out of high school or they can enroll later, as long as they have at least two academic years left in their undergraduate or graduate programs.

Army ROTC is a college elective that develops decision making, management, and leadership skills that enhance Cadets' future success in the military or civilian sector.

Army ROTC offers over 2,000 full-tuition scholarships nationally to high school seniors every year.
