

Biography

Sergeant Blake Gaynor

Demonstration Parachutist, Gold Team

U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Dallas, Texas

School Attended: The Colony High School

Biographical Sketch

Sergeant Blake Gaynor is an 88m, Motor Transport Operator, serving as a Demonstration Parachutist on the Gold Demonstration Team.

Blake enlisted in the Navy in 2004. By 2007 he enlisted into the Army and attended Basic Training and his Advanced Individual Training as a motor transporter at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri. Some of his previous duty assignments include Ft. Polk, Louisiana, and Ft. Bliss, Texas.

SGT Gaynor has had tours in Iraq and Afghanistan where he has been awarded the Combat Action Badge, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, and the Good Conduct Medal.

In 2012 Blake applied to the United States Army Parachute Team to attend the rigorous Assessment and Selection Program. Upon completion of the program Blake was assigned to the Gold Demonstration Team.

Since learning to skydive in 2009 Blake has logged more than 1,516 free fall parachute jumps.

In his free time he enjoys skateboarding, playing the guitar and indoor skydiving.

