Biographical Sketch

Mr. Jerry Morrison is a Multimedia Information Specialist serving his fourth year on the Team as a civilian.

He is a graduate of the Department of Defense's Advanced Military Photojournalism and Multimedia Program at Rochester Institute of Technology in upstate New York.

Morrison enlisted into the U.S. Air Force in 1990 and retired as a Master Sergeant in May 2011. While active duty he was an Aerial Combat Camera Photojournalist for the 1st Combat Camera Squadron at Charleston AFB, SC for most of his career with multiple deployments to Antarctica, Bosnia, Kosovo, Afghanistan and Iraq.

His last and most impressionable assignment was at the Pentagon working as the Personal Photographer and Special Military Assistant for both Secretary of Defense's Donald H. Rumsfeld and Robert M. Gates which helped garner him top honors for photography from TIME magazine in 2008. He has deployed and documented joint operations and exercises in 109 countries throughout his 20 years in the U.S. Air Force.

In his free time he enjoys spending time with his family, while boating, fishing and traveling.
