

Biography

Mr Kenneth Breeden

Pilot, Aviation Detachment

U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Springfield, Virginia

School Attended: Embry Riddle Aeronautical University B.S. Professional Aeronautics

Biographical Sketch

Mr. Kenneth M. Breeden is a fixed-wing pilot who also serves as the U. S. Army Parachute Team's Aviation Maintenance Officer and Contractor Project Officer.

Breeden enlisted in the Army in 1981 to attend Warrant Officer Candidate School and initial flight training at Fort Rucker, Ala. Mr. Breeden has served tours in Alaska, Texas, Berlin, North Carolina, Kwajalein Atoll, Korea.

During his 23 years in the Army, Mr. Breeden earned many awards and certifications. These include the Meritorious Service Medal (two oak leaf clusters), Army Commendation Medal (three oak leaf clusters), The Master Aviator Badge and The Legion of Merit. Mr. Breeden has logged more than 11,000 flight hours.

When Breeden is not flying the Golden Knights, he enjoys spending time fishing, boating and spending time with his family and grandchildren.

