

Biography

Sgt. Aaron Decker

Crew Chief, Aviation Detachment

U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Whitewright, Texas

School Attended: Whitewright High School

Biographical Sketch

Sgt. Aaron Decker, a Black Hawk Mechanic, serves as a crew chief for the U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights".

Decker entered the Army in June of 2013. He graduated basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. in August of 2013. He attended advanced individual training to become a Black Hawk Helicopter Mechanic at Fort Eustis, Va. After graduating advanced individual training he was stationed at Hunter Army Airfield, Ga. where he served as a squad leader, Unit Armorer, Maintenance Floor Supervisor and Battalion Aircraft Ground Support Equipment Representative.

Decker served one tour in Afghanistan in support of Operation Freedom Sentinel from 2017 to 2018. In August of 2019 Decker was assigned to the Golden Knights.

In his free time, Aaron enjoys working on antique vehicles and woodworking.

