

Biography

Spc. Blake Keller

Crew Chief, Aviation Detachment

U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Grand Junction, Colorado

School Attended: Central High School

Biographical Sketch

Spc. Blake Keller, a 15 U CH-47 Helicopter Mechanic, serves as a crew chief for the U.S. Army Parachute Team, nicknamed the "Golden Knights".

Keller enlisted in the Army in May of 2018. He graduated basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. in August of 2018 then attended advanced individual training at Fort Eustis, Va.

Prior to joining the Golden Knights, Keller was stationed at Camp Humphreys, South Korea. While stationed at Camp Humphreys, Keller worked as a CH-47 Crew Chief and flew more than 230 hours while earning the Army Achievement Medal and an Overseas Ribbon.

In his free time, he likes to work on cars, hunt and play video games.

