

Biography

Staff Sgt. Fredirico Sifuentes

Competition Parachutist, 8 Way Formation Skydiving Team
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Phoenix, Arizona

School Attended: South Mountain High School

Biographical Sketch

Staff Sgt. Fredirico Sifuentes, a 92R Parachute Maintenance Technician, serves as a competitor with the Golden Knights 8 Way Team.

Sifuentes enlisted into the Army in 2012 after he attended Basic Training at Fort Jackson, S.C. Immediately after, he attended his Advanced Individual Training as a 92R, Parachute Maintenance Technician at Fort Lee, Va.

Previously, Sifuentes served as a parachute technician for the U.S. Airborne School, in Fort Benning, Ga. He has been awarded the Army Achievement Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, the Good Conduct Medal, Airborne Badge, Air Assault Badge, and the High Altitude Low Opening Badge.

Since learning to skydive in 2014 he has logged more than 3,000 free-fall parachute jumps and 20 military static-line jumps.

In his free time, Sifuentes enjoys playing basketball, indoor skydiving, watching movies and spending time with his family.

