Biographical Sketch

Mr. Sean Capogreco is an Audio Visual Documentations Specialist serving as a catch all Illustrator, photographer, and Dark room Technician for the Army Parachute Team.

Capogreco enlisted into the Army in 1995 and served ten years as a Visual Information Specialist. While in the service he was primarily assigned to 3rd Battalion 4th Psychological Operations Group with whom he deployed to Bosnia for 14 months.

After returning from his second tour in Bosnia, Capogreco attended the Golden Knight Assessment and Selection course and upon being 'knighted' he was assigned to Media Relations as the Team's catch-all freefall photo / videographer. He was assigned to the Formation Freefall Team for the seasons of 2001-2002.

In 2002 Capogreco earned a U.S. National Gold Medal with his team as a videographer of the 4 way event of the 2002 National Skydiving Championships.

In May of 1987 he learned to skydive in his home town of Sparta, Illinois, and has since logged more than 6,250 freefall parachute jumps and 40 military static line jumps.

Not to be pigeonholed into just one interest Capogreco is also very active in his side projects of metal casting, foundries, backyard solar engineering, model airplanes and computers.
