

Biography

Mrs. Megan Hackett

Photographer/ Social Media, Media Relations Section
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Raeford, NC

School Attended: North Carolina State University

Biographical Sketch

Mrs. Megan Hackett is a Media Information Specialist serving as a photographer and Media Relations representative for the Army Parachute Team.

Hackett earned a Bachelor's Degree in Media Communication from North Carolina State University in 2010 and has completed several continuing education courses in the media field.

In June of 2008, Hackett learned to skydive in her hometown of Raeford, North Carolina. Since learning to skydive in 2008, Hackett has made over 350 freefall parachute jumps and over 50 hours of dedicated tunnel training. She received her USPA Coach Rating in 2009 and earned accolades such as the North Carolina State Women's Formation Skydiving Record (2011) and USPA Indoor Skydiving National Championships Medal Recipient. Since 2008, she has been closely affiliated with the Army Parachute Team as a Parachute Rigging Specialist.

In her free time, she enjoys fitness ventures and CrossFit, outdoor recreation, skydiving, photography, and time with her husband, son and dog.

