

Biography

Sergeant Jonathan Pemberton

Demonstration Parachutist, Black Team
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Sanford, North Carolina

School Attended: Lee County High School

Biographical Sketch

Sergeant Jonathan Pemberton is currently serving as a Demonstration Parachutist on the Black Demonstration Team.

Jonathan enlisted into the U.S. Army in 2012. He attended basic combat training in Fort Jackson SC, from there he went to AIT in Fort Sam Houston TX. Next he attended Airborne School and Ranger assesment and selection at Fort Benning GA. After successful completion of RASP, Ranger Assessment Selection Program, he entered Pre-SOCOM, Special Operations Combat Medics school where he trained and awaited a class date to Special Operations Combat Medic course.

Jonathan entered SOCOM, Special Operations Command in Febuary of 2014 and was assigned to Alpha company 2-501 Parachute Infantry regiment where he participated in multiple JFEs and JRTC rotations. He has also participated in two trips to Holland where he learned about and remebered the heroic men that took part of Operation Market-Garden. On 1 July 2017 he was promoted to Sergeant and deployed to Afghanistan with HHC 2-501 as apart of the treatment section.

He has been awarded the Parachutist and Combat Medic badge. Since learning to skydive in 2016 he has logged more than 600 freefall parachute jumps and 35 military static line jumps.

His long term goal is to apply for the Army PA program and become a PA. In his off times his hobbies incude Hiking and Motocross riding.

